ABOUT THE EXHIBITION

In celebration of teaching artists' talent and commitment to our community, as well as the accomplishments of our accessible art students, we are proud to present the 2019 Main Line Art Center Teaching Artists' and Accessible Art Exhibition in conjunction with our fundraiser, Art in Action. The opening event, Art In Action, will be Saturday, May 4th from 6:30-9:30pm and will feature a silent auction, live artist demos, and more.

ELECTRONIC SUBMISSION

All entries must be submitted electronically via <http://mainlineart.slideroom.com> by 11:59 pm on February 19 to be accepted into the exhibition. Due to the nature of this exhibition, this deadline will not be extended. There is no application fee however, there is a $5.00 processing fee for Slideroom. We are unable to accept paper applications. Work dropped off without prior registration in slideroom will not be accepted.

ELIGIBILITY & REQUIREMENTS

All teaching artists (active within the past two years) are invited to show one piece completed within the past three years and not previously exhibited at Main Line Art Center. We are also requesting that you donate a piece of artwork ($250-$500 value) for the silent auction. Submit 4 pieces for consideration, and please indicate in the description of your electronic application, which artwork(s) should be considered for the exhibition and which you would like to donate for the auction. The maximum width and height of any piece can be no greater than 3 feet. All 2-D work must be framed, securely wired and ready to hang or it can not be exhibited.

ART SALES

The Art Center will retain 40% commission on all sales from its galleries. If you are not donating a piece to the silent auction, please consider donating the commission from your exhibited artwork to the fundraising effort.

SILENT AUCTION

The silent auction will take place the night of the opening event, Saturday May 4th from 6:30 - 9:30pm. Indicate on Slideroom, under artwork description, which artwork(s) you would like to donate to the silent auction. Please note: the price you list as the suggested price for the auction item is not a guarantee of the artwork's sale price (for silent auction work only). All proceeds will benefit our scholarship fund, and further our vision of making art accessible to everyone.
