NUTCRACKER NARRATOR

Main Line Art Center director on stage Dec. 14 in Aston

Amie Potsic, executive director of the Main Line Art Center, will be guest narrator for the Sunday, Dec. 14, 2 p.m. performance of our International Ballet Classique's Nutcracker Ballet at Neumann University in Aston.

Potsic is a seasoned professional with over 20 years of experience in the field of arts and culture. A dancer and musician growing up, Potsic turned to the visual arts and is now a photographer and installation artist. She received her MFA in Photography from the San Francisco Art Institute and BA's in Photojournalism and English Literature from Indiana University. She also studied at the University of The Arts in Philadelphia and the Corcoran School of Art in Washington, D.C. Potsic has been the executive director of Main Line Art Center and

Amy Potsic

Chair of the Art In City Hall Artistic Advisory Board to the Office of Arts and Culture of the City of Philadelphia since 2012.

She will share with the audience the story and themes of the Nutcracker Ballet including her personal thoughts on why the Nutcracker Ballet is so important to all during the holiday season.

Performances will be Thursday December 12 through Sunday December 15. For additional details and tickets please call 610-504-8613 or visit www.ibcballet.org.
