

May 4, 2015

Main Line Art Center's Spring Exhibition Preview Party Guests 'Paint the Town Red'

1. "Paint the Town Red" was the theme of this year's Main Line Art's Spring Gala Fundraiser and during the gala on Friday May 1, 2015, preview party guests dressed in red or just a touch or head-to-toe! The event featured music, dancing, cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, and a silent auction with pairings of red wine and culinary experiences. Proceeds benefit Main Line Art's award-winning programs that reach over 16,000 people annually including children and adults with disabilities. (From left) Denise Saughling, Julia Schroeder, Anne Umbrecht and Kristina Harshany paused for a photo during the preview party.

2. Paula Scott and "Paint the Town Red" event chair Missy Joy Halpern.

3. Honorary Chair Dr. Sherman Leis and Main Line Art executive director Amie Potsic.

4. (From left) Louise and Brian Dusenberrie, Kim and Hobart Rowland, Mary Ellen Dugan and David Wagner.

5. Denise Walsh, Jan Reisner and committee member Reid Bodek.

6. Charlie and Alice Dagit in front of his piece called "Orville."

7. (From left) Mara Schiffman and her husband, Dr. Keith Laskin, Patty Aaronson and Dr. Robert Fried

8. Pam and Jim Regan.

9. Louis and Lynn Muchnick.

10. (From left) Abby Mezrow, Tina Aberant, Lower Merion Commissioner Scott Zelov, Jennifer Leach and State Senator Daylin Leach and Charlie Dagit.

<http://www.susanscovill.com/2015/05/mlart/>