Fall 2015 TEEN CLASSES

Teen students work alongside professional artists as they gain valuable experience in a variety of visual arts. Classes are small so to provide individualized attention and critiques so that students can build technical skills and create work they are proud of.

Teen Jewelry: Plastics to Metals

Jennifer Theokary

Tues., Oct. 20-Nov. 24, 4:15-6 pm

6 wks, $157 M/$170 NM

Students will learn carving of plastics, heat delrin, acrylic forming, cold connection, and etching to create a one-of-a-kind piece of jewelry.

Teen Digital Photography Workshop at West Laurel Hill Cemetery Halloween Photo Shoot

Wed., Oct. 28, 3:45-6 pm

$32 M/$35 NM

Meet up with a Main Line Art Center Teaching Artist for a photography workshop that explores the beautiful grounds of West Laurel Hill Cemetery days before Halloween. The workshop begins with a photo shoot, and then ends with a tour of the grounds by West Laurel Hill staff from 5:15-6 pm.

Comics, Manga and Graphic Novel: An Intro to Making Comics

Asher Humm

Sun., Sept. 27-Nov. 1, 1-3 pm

6 wks, $177 M/$192 NM

Journey through comics in this intro class, which explores a different theme with a new project each week. Students learn writing, thumbnails, drawing, editing, and lettering for comics. Artists will find their voice and style as we check out comics, Manga and graphic novels for inspiration. Students leave class with their own short comic.

Teen Endless Art: Independent Study

Karla Pankratz

Sat., Oct. 3-Dec. 5, 1:30-3:30 pm

8 wks (no classes Oct. 24 & Nov. 28), $199 M/$216 NM

Art is endless in this studio as students work on creative individual projects and try a variety of art materials in painting, drawing, printmaking, collage, and more. This studio class is a balance of instruction, technical skills, and guided mentorship for individual goals and to help develop individual artistic style. Experiment with new materials, build skills, and create work you are proud of.

Teen Pottery: Wheelthrowing Intensive

Marea Palmer-Loh

Sat., Sept. 26-Dec. 12, 1:30-3:30 pm

11 wks (no Nov. 28), $268 M/$290 NM

In our newly renovated ceramics studio overlooking the sensory garden, work on the potters' wheel for the first time or strengthen your skills and ceramic knowledge. Learn centering and pulling to make simple forms such as cups, bowls, and vases. Finish your work by trimming feet, carving, attaching handles, and glazing. More advanced students will be encouraged to create their own projects and work independently under the close guidance of the instructor. Create work that is both beautiful and functional in this all levels class.

Ages 16+ welcome in adult classes. Visit our website for adult class options.
