

Making Good Photos Great
John Benigno

Student Supply List:

Students will need pen and paper for note taking. They will need a camera – all formats (digital and film) are O.K. They will have to have some way to share assignments with the class. This can be printed photographs or on their personal lap top computers (smart phones do not have a large enough display). They will need a thumb drive.