

CALL FOR ENTRIES: TEACHING ARTISTS

Common Thread

April 24 - May 31, 2020

All teaching artists are invited to participate in Common Thread, an exhibition of artwork by our teaching artists, young artists (ages 5-16), and artists from our community partner programs. Together, in one exhibition, these works exemplify the diversity of our community while exploring what it means to be an artist.

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

MARCH 2, 2020

For questions & info:

Paige Cherrington, Exhibitions Manager

610.525.0272 ext. 116 | pcherrington@mainlineart.org

Eligibility & Requirements

All current teaching artists are required to submit three pieces completed within the past two years and not previously exhibited at Main Line Art Center. One of the three works will be chosen for the exhibition. All 2-D work must be framed, securely wired and ready to display or it will not be exhibited. All mediums are welcome.

Electronic Submission

Entries must be submitted electronically via <http://mainlineart.slideroom.com> by 11:59 pm on March 2 to be accepted into the exhibition. There is no application fee, however, there is a $5.00 processing fee paid to slideroom. We cannot accept paper applications. Work dropped off without prior registration to slideroom cannot be accepted, no exceptions.

Delivery & Pick up

Hand deliveries of artwork only. Entries must be wired and ready to display with completed entry form. All pieces must be labeled using the form provided below. Label should be securely fastened to the back of your piece. Due to lack of storage at the Art Center, pieces must be picked up by June 2 by 5pm.

Art Sales

The Art Center will retain 40% commission on all sales from its galleries.

Details

This exhibition will include work from teachings artists, young artists (ages 5-16) and artists in our community partner programs. Young artists must have taken a class or participated in Main Line Art Center Summer Camp within the last three years in order to be included.
